What's more, the award-winning resort offers private activities to provide guests with the ultimate escape. From family picnics on the beach to shopping and sipping Champagne in its spa boutique, a menu of curated experiences allow guests to social distance in complete luxury. Not to be missed: the beachfront dinner, a five-course, white-glove service from the Acqualina culinary team. Because the only thing better than a proper Mediterranean feast is a proper Mediterranean feast steps away from the sea under a canopy of stars. Prices upon request, 305.918.8000, acqualinaresort.com
