brehtaking presence on Sunny Isles Beach. And even better, they keep adding unrivaled hospitality packages to ensure that a stay at Acqualina is a completely unique experience, complete with all-encompassing luxury. This time, they’re doing so with the launch of the new Grand Deluxe Three-Bedroom Oceanfront Suite.

The stunning gem is located on the 32nd floor of the prestigious hotel, boasting sweeping views of the Atlantic Ocean and Miami skyline, three beautiful bedrooms complete for the whole family, a full gourmet kitchen, state-of-the-art entertainment system, and of course, the key aspect: a Rolls-Royce Ghost to drive throughout the city when booking for a minimum three-night stay. In addition to ultra-luxurious sleeping accommodations, guests can now cruise around the Magic City in style for a day with one of the luxury automobile company’s most iconic models.

Deborah Yager Fleming, CEO & Partner of Acqualina Resort, explains, “To celebrate the announcement, we felt it was a wonderful match to partner with Rolls-Royce by offering a luxury motor car experience as part of the suite stay. It’s only befitting as Acqualina has the world’s largest collection of independently owned Rolls-Royce vehicles in a single property.”

The elegant suite was designed by both Yager Fleming and Stephanie Trump, the resort’s ownership team, in partnership with design firm SBI. The design evokes contemporary glamour, boasting palettes of white, blue, silver and grey combined with traditional furnishings and elements that create a tranquil and luxurious experience. Upon entering the suite, guests will be greeted by chic marble flooring, mirrored sconces, hand-painted wallpaper and a beautiful flush mount chandelier at the focal point.

The accommodations are decorated in tasteful art pieces, all chosen to complement the warm, soft interior touches. Additionally, touchpad thermostats, Lutron lighting control and high-speed WiFi connection add a modern touch of convenience to the charming abode.

And the luxury experience does not stop there—to really get the most out of your stay at Acqualina, we suggest taking advantage of the Hotel’s award-winning amenities, such as the Five-Star Acqualina Spa by ESPA, as well as the resort’s new Picnic in Paradise offer. Picnic in Paradise utilizes the grounds’ new sand dunes that offer six additional outdoor living room settings for a total of 19 lounge experiences. Guests of the hotel can relax along the dunes in the Miami sunshine on Acqualina’s signature red couches, chairs or umbrellas and order a gourmet picnic basket for a unique outdoor experience. The basket comes complete with delicious delicacies based on the guests’ preference, carried out and presented by the hotel’s butler, who will ensure all needs are met.

Executive Chef Andre Sattler has prepared the plentiful picnic basket for $85 per person, based on two people sharing. Menu highlights include chicken & orange salad with lemon yogurt dressing; Tuscan kale & black quinoa salad with pumpernickel croutons; Hawaiian tuna poke; petite crab cakes bites; and honey & garlic chicken wraps. Guests will also enjoy imported and domestic cheeses, chocolate covered strawberries, pastries and a selection of fruits. Champagne, red or white wine and still or sparkling water are optional, but not included.
